

Student scholarships

Young parasitologists are kindly invited to participate in European meetings and to contribute to the development of Parasitology in Europe.

To help and stimulate them in this way, the Council of the European Federation of Parasitologists grants approximately 25 student scholarships covering the Congress fees of the next European Multicolloquium of Parasitology (EMOP XI), to be held in Cluj-Napoca, Romania, from 25 to 29 July 2012.

Candidates should be students and nationals of a country attached to EFP and participating in an investigation carried out in a European Centre. Their results will be presented at EMOP XI, either orally or by poster. If you would like to apply for these scholarships, please check the details and conditions and fill in the form (see below). Deadline June 20th 2012

How to apply:

- The application form, signed by the candidate and the head of the department where the research was realized, will be returned to Prof. Jean DUPOUY-CAMET, Vice-President of the Federation. The applicant has to register for the congress and to inform EMOP organizers that she or he will apply for the scholarship.
- The application should be accompanied with a proof of age, nationality, a copy of the student card and short curriculum vitae (one page).
- Papers must be presented by the candidate at the EMOP congress.
- Applications should reach Prof. Jean DUPOUY-CAMET not later than June 20 2012
